Book Deals Online Training Module

DESCRIPTION

This training module was created using video clips of Seth Jaffe lecturing, related PowerPoint slides, and Adobe Articulate. It illustrates the complexity of tackling Book Deals questions. OGE covers a template for approaching book deals questions in light of the complex web of statutes and regulations governing whether or not a federal employee can get paid for writing a book.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Book Deals Training Module was to highlight the complex process of dealing with book deal questions. It is intended to serve as a useful reference tool for ethics officials dealing with book deal questions.

PRODUCT ADAPTABILITY

This product is intended to serve as a general reference tool. It can be easily used by other ethics officials throughout the government. For other agencies wishing to create something more specific, the tools were simple enough that someone with a novice understanding could very quickly be producing many high quality training modules.
