GENERAL AGENCY COMMENTS

The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) appreciates the time and effort that OGE invested in this inspection of the agency's ethics program.

The work of the NLRB Ethics Office is essential to the agency's mission to administer and enforce the statutory requirements of the National Labor Relations Act with integrity and transparency. The results of this Ethics Program Inspection highlight the Ethics Office's achievements, including delivering a nationwide ethics training program, ensuring compliance with financial disclosure requirements, and providing individual, tailored guidance to employees.

The successes of the Ethics Office, as reflected in this Ethics Program Inspection, would not have been possible without NLRB Leadership's constant support and dedication of resources to sustain and continually improve the quality of ethics services for all NLRB employees. In addition, the work and achievements reflected in this Ethics Program Inspection were made possible because of the talented and dedicated team of ethics officials at the NLRB.

We look forward to continuing to build on the NLRB ethics program successes and maintaining the Ethics Office's collegial and collaborative relationship with OGE.
