March 2014 Ethics Symposium \(Distance Learning Event\)

August 2013 Ethics Symposium

On August 21st the Institute for Ethics in Government in partnership with the United States Department of Agriculture Ethics Office, will host a one-day Symposium in the Jefferson Auditorium in the South Building at USDA headquarters.

The full-day event will feature sessions covering the lifecycle of a presidential appointee, including the revolving door and gifts provisions of title 18 of the US Code, title 5 of the US Code, the Standards of Conduct, and Executive Order 13490.

Additionally, USDA will present program highlights and model practices. OGE will also provide an update on the ethics provisions in light of the Supreme Court decision in United States v. Windsor.

There is no fee to attend the symposium. Registration Deadline: August 14, 2013
