The Foundation’s DAEO will review the aforementioned written procedures annually.

6.7	The agency can demonstrate that there is an effective process for ensuring that new supervisors receive the required information within one year of appointment. See 5 C.F.R. § 2638.306(b).	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

COMMENTS

(6.5 – 6.6) At the onset of this inspection, the Foundation had not yet established written procedures for initial ethics training or for issuing notices to prospective employees and new supervisors. During the course of the inspection the Foundation developed written procedures in these areas that fully meet requirements, obviating the need for a formal recommendation for corrective action. The Foundation’s DAEO will review the aforementioned written procedures annually.

(6.7) The Foundation has not hired a new supervisor since 2005, which predates the requirement to provide supervisory notices. Since they have never had to issue a notice there is no direct way to demonstrate that an effective process is in place, although their written procedures provide reasonable assurance that the next new supervisor will receive the required notice.
