COMMENTS
(3.2) FCC’s written procedures did not clearly state that the review and certification of public reports should be performed within 60 days of the report receipt, unless additional information is being requested, or a remedy is required. OGE brought the missing certification deadlines in the written procedures to ethics officials’ attention. Ethics officials promptly amended the written procedures to include the timeframes for the review and certification of the public reports. (3.4) There were no filers subject to the late filing fee. (3.14) There were only four annual reports required to be filed by PAS officials. Two of the reports were filed one and two days late. Another annual report was filed less than 30 days late.
