Executive Order 13989 requires “appointees” to sign an ethics pledge comprising several commitments as a condition of employment. The U.S. Office of Government Ethics (OGE) is issuing this Legal Advisory to provide a tool to assist ethics officials in using OGE’s past guidance on two prior executive orders containing ethics pledges – Executive Order 13770 and Executive Order 13490 – to interpret the ethics pledge commitments contained in section 1 of Executive Order 13989 (the “Pledge”).

This Legal Advisory is issued in consultation with the White House Counsel’s Office and provides an overview of provisions containing language (1) that was unchanged from E.O. 13490 and/or E.O. 13770, (2) that was modified or amended as compared to an earlier executive order, and (3) that did not appear in one of the prior executive orders. Although this Advisory does not provide an interpretation of the modified or new provisions, the attached table highlights specific provisions in the E.O. 13989 Pledge containing language that is common to language in an earlier Executive Order, and identifies past OGE guidance upon which ethics officials may continue to rely. OGE intends to issue additional guidance on the changed or new language in subsequent advisories.

I. Pledge Provisions Adopted Without Change

There are four provisions in the Pledge that were adopted without substantive change from the pledges in E.O. 13770 or E.O. 13490:

1 See Exec. Order No. 13,989, sec. 1 (Jan. 20, 2021). The term “appointee” is defined in section 2(b) of the Executive Order. Moreover, the requirement to sign the new Pledge applies only to appointees appointed on or after January 20, 2021.
2 There are four additional sections after the Pledge, covering definitions, waivers, administration, and enforcement. This Advisory addresses the first two sections – the Pledge and the definitions.
3 As stated in Legal Advisory LA-21-03 (Jan. 22, 2021), “ethics officials and employees may continue to rely on OGE’s prior guidance regarding Executive Orders 13490 and 13770 to the extent that such guidance addresses language common to either of these executive orders and the new Executive Order.”
II. Amended Pledge Provisions

Executive Order 13989 contains modified versions of provisions from E.O. 13770 and E.O. 13490. The first modified provision, contained in paragraph 3 of the Pledge, applies a set of restrictions to incoming appointees who previously worked as lobbyists or foreign agents. There had been a similar provision in E.O. 13490, but it only applied to former lobbyists (i.e., incoming appointees who had registered as lobbyists under the Lobbying Disclosure Act (LDA)). Paragraph 3 incorporates the entire provision from E.O. 13490 and adds new language extending similar restrictions to incoming appointees who had registered as agents under the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA).

Paragraph 4 of the Pledge applies to appointees who are “senior employees” as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 207(c). Similar to E.O. 13490, E.O. 13989 imposes a two-year cooling-off period on those appointees with respect to certain communications before their former agency. However, E.O. 13989 extends the prohibition to communications with “senior White House staff,” which is defined at section 2(r).

Paragraphs 5 and 6 of the Pledge will subject former appointees to post-government lobbying restrictions. These paragraphs combine elements of post-government lobbying restrictions from prior pledges and expand these restrictions to cover behind-the-scenes support that “materially assist[s]” lobbying contacts. Section 2(h) provides a definition of “materially assist.” OGE plans to issue guidance to clarify how these provisions of the Pledge will operate.

III. New Pledge Provisions

Executive Order 13989 introduces new language that did not appear in prior ethics pledges, including an additional commitment for appointees entering Government service. Under 5 See Exec. Order No. 13,490, sec. 1, para. 3.

7 22 U.S.C. §§ 611-621. Although OGE does not interpret the FARA, OGE did provide a summary of selected provisions of this statute in OGE Legal Advisory LA-20-09 (Oct. 29, 2020).
9 See Exec. Order No. 13,989, sec. 1, paras. 5-6.
10 See Exec. Order No. 13,770, sec. 1, paras. 3-4; see also Exec. Order No. 13,490, sec. 1, para. 5.
11 To the extent that the language in the new provisions is common to language from past provisions, appointees and ethics officials may rely on OGE interpretations of this language as used in prior pledges. The most extensive analysis of language found in these provisions appears in OGE DAEOgram DO-10-004 (Feb. 22, 2010). Additional guidance is available in other advisories. See OGE Legal Advisory LA-17-03 (Mar. 20, 2017); see also OGE Legal Advisory LA-20-09; OGE Legal Advisory LA-21-03 (Jan. 22, 2021) (discussing the application of prior advisories to E.O. 13989).
paragraph 7 of the Pledge, appointees are prohibited from accepting certain payments or other benefits that qualify as a “golden parachute” from their former employers. OGE intends to issue interpretive guidance regarding this new provision.

Additionally, the Pledge contains expanded language in the preamble that is intended to remind appointees of their existing obligations as public employees. This preamble contains an appointee’s acknowledgement that “this pledge is part of a broader ethics in government plan designed to restore and maintain public trust in government” and a commitment to engage in “conduct consistent with that plan.” 12 The preamble language does not impose any new substantive requirements.

IV. Table: Applicability of Prior Guidance to the Executive Order 13989 Ethics Pledge

The attached table identifies specific provisions in the E.O. 13989 Pledge containing language that is either new or common to language in earlier executive orders, and it identifies past OGE guidance upon which ethics officials may continue to rely.

  NEW: The restriction on communicating with the senior White House staff did not appear in E.O. 13490 or E.O. 13770. Section 2(r) defines this term as follows: “Senior White House staff” means any person appointed by the President to a position under sections 105(a)(2)(A) or (B) of title 3, United States Code, or by the Vice President to a position under sections 106(a)(1)(A) or (B) of title 3.” |
E.O. 13989 Ethics Pledge Provision

Sec. 1, para. 5. Revolving Door Ban—Senior and Very Senior Appointees Leaving Government. If, upon my departure from the Government, I am covered by the post-employment restrictions set forth in sections 207(c) or 207(d) of title 18, United States Code, and those sections' implementing regulations, I agree that, in addition, for a period of 1 year following the end of my appointment, I will not materially assist others in making communications or appearances that I am prohibited from undertaking myself by (a) holding myself out as being available to engage in lobbying activities in support of any such communications or appearances; or (b) engaging in any such lobbying activities.

NEW: This restriction that applies to senior and very senior appointees leaving Government did not appear in E.O. 13490 or E.O. 13770.

NEW: This paragraph introduces new language, “materially assist,” which did not appear in E.O. 13490 or E.O. 13770. Section 2(h) defines this term as follows: “‘Materially assist’ means to provide substantive assistance but does not include providing background or general education on a matter of law or policy based upon an individual’s subject matter expertise, nor any conduct or assistance permitted under section 207(j) of title 18, United States Code.”

Sec. 1, para. 6. Revolving Door Ban—Appointees Leaving Government to Lobby. In addition to abiding by the limitations of paragraph 4, I also agree, upon leaving Government service, not to lobby any covered executive branch official or non-career Senior Executive Service appointee, or engage in any activity on behalf of any foreign government or foreign political party which, were it undertaken on January 20, 2021, would require that I register under FARA, for the remainder of the Administration or 2 years following the end of my appointment, whichever is later.

The following guidance may be relied upon with respect to the restriction on lobbying any covered executive branch official or non-career Senior Executive Service appointee in E.O. 13989:
- Guidance on the post-employment lobbying ban: DO-10-004

The following guidance may be relied upon with respect to the restriction on engaging in any activity on behalf of any foreign government or foreign political party in E.O. 13989:
- Summary of the post-employment restrictions concerning foreign parties: LA-20-09

NEW: The extension of the restriction to “2 years following the end of my appointment” if later than the end of the Administration did not appear in E.O. 13490 or E.O. 13770.

Sec. 1, para. 7. Golden Parachute Ban. I have not accepted and will not accept, including after entering Government, any salary or other cash payment from my former employer the eligibility for and payment of which is limited to individuals accepting a position in the United States Government. I also have not accepted and will not accept any non-cash benefit from my former employer that is provided in lieu of such a prohibited cash payment.

NEW: The restriction that prohibits certain payments from former employers (“golden parachutes”) did not appear in E.O. 13490 or E.O. 13770.
